"CHOOSE NORMAL OR THE SALOONS"

EDITORIAL MESSAGE OF FIFTH DISTRICT PAPERS TO MARYVILLE

THAT IS ISSUE FEB. 3 SAYS OUR EXCHANGES

Bethany, Gallatin, Grant City and Other County Seat Papers Speak Out on Vote.

The Maryville wet and dry forces are engaged in a fight to finish, with odds decidedly in favor of the "drys." It is surprising that any town, much less Maryville, which has been awarded one of the state institutions of learning and maintained at the expense of the state, should feel the need of a saloon. The people over there may not all know it, but certainly a majority of them realize the fact that a state normal school is decidedly out of joint along side of a saloon, and that a mistake was made in locating one or the other.—Bethany Democrat.

Maryville Local Option.

We were called up over the telephone Tuesday afternoon from Maryville requesting us to give the local option election to be held in Maryville a write-up.

We were taught when quite young to attend to our own business and not butt into other people's. A few years ago the local option question was submitted to the people of the county, outside of Maryville, and it carried by a large majority. Maryville did not vote on this question at the time and took no part in the matter, so far as we know.

This is a question that interests Maryville more than any other town in the county, and the inhabitants of that city are the only ones that vote on this great question, and we do not believe that we will have anything to say when we do not get a vote.—Parnell Sentinel.

Vote Out the Saloons.

An election is to be held at Maryville on February 3rd to decide whether the town shall be dry or remain under the pernicious influence of the liquor interests.

Ordinarily we might be considered as "butting in" if we offered advice to the voters of Maryville. But at Maryville is located the Northwest Normal, and this county being located in the district tributary to this school, we have the right to ask for parents of Daviess county that their interests be considered in this matter.

If the State Normal at Maryville is to be the success it ought to be and what we are hoping it will be, it ought not to be handicapped by being located in a town where the students sent from other precincts shall be exposed to all the evil influences which are associated with the open saloon.

We believe the fact that Maryville towns have voted them out has decided many a parent in selecting a school home for their children. It is a case of the school versus the saloons, and after the elections we shall know which one is preferred by Maryville people. Vote 'em out!—Gallatin Democrat.

Shall We Send Them to Maryville?

Does Maryville want our boys and girls to attend their Normal school?

The city of Maryville votes on the adoption of the local option law on the third day of February next. The people of Holt county are directly interested in the result. The Northwest Missouri State Normal school is located there.

It is convenient and accessible to us and is the school to which our boys and girls will naturally go if the people of Maryville show that they want them. We have voted the saloon out of our county. Our boys and girls are not subject to its degrading influence at home, and when they go away to attend school we are not going to send them to a school located in a town where they will be subjected to the temptations and influences we have guarded them against at home.

If the people of Maryville want the boys and girls from Holt county to attend the Normal school, located there, they can say so by voting the saloons out at the coming election. A vote in favor of the saloon will be taken by our people to mean that the people of Maryville prefer their saloons to their school.—Holt County Sentinel (Oregon).

It's Up to Maryville.

It is certain now that the people of Maryville will vote on the liquor question February 3. The Hopkins Journal believes that the election will go to the "dry" side with a good majority, and furthermore, the Journal invites Maryville to perch upon the water wagon with the rest of the county.

From this distance the outcome looks just a little uncertain, although we believe that the better element of the city will eventually get a strangle hold on the booze bunch and flop them to the mat. The old song of revenue cuts some figure—although it shouldn't. The taxpayer who predicts a lack of revenue when the saloon is gone should take one square look at himself in the mirror.

During the local option election four years ago a Maryville attorney made a great talk for prohibition in Burlington Junction, and among other things stated that more than fifty members of Maryville churches went to the polls and voted "wet," supposedly to save higher taxation. No question about where the burden fell—on the working man who could ill afford to spend his wages for firewater. Wonder if these same people expect the working man's funds to grease the track for them to the better land?

Anyway, the result of the election will be watched with much interest in northwest Missouri.—Burlington Junction Post.

UP AND THEN BACK AGAIN

Temperature Was 47 at 1 o'clock Today, But Forecast Promises Much Colder for Tomorrow.

One degree below freezing is the lowest it has been since yesterday morning, and it has been warning right up during last night and today. It was 47 above at 1 o'clock.

The rainfall was .27 inches, or a little more than a quarter of an inch. It seemed like more, however, as the snow melted, making a heavy slush and flow. A fog last night and this morning also added to the murkiness of the weather and persons' dispositions.

The forecast for tomorrow is rain or snow and much colder.

DR. BUSHNELL HERE TODAY

Assured Maryville Will Go Dry, Says Anti-Saloon Leader—McKnight for Senator.

Dr. Albert C. Bushnell, assistant state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, from Kansas City, was in Maryville this morning. He stated that the league was very hopeful of the outcome of the election in Maryville and were assured that the election will be dry.

He also stated that J. W. McKnight of King City, representative of Gentry county in the last legislature, has consented to run for the state senate from this district to succeed Senator Anderson Craig. Mr. Craig is very well spoken of over the congressional district as a candidate to contest with Congressman Booher, Mr. Bushnell stated after a tour of the district.

THEY DIDN'T MIND

FULL HOUSE BRAVED RAIN AND SLUSH FOR LYCEUM.

BEST ARTISTS PLEASED

Harp Numbers Alone Made Evening Worth While—Double Returns Asked Twice.

Another full house heard the third number of the Maryville Lyceum course last night at the First Methodist church, in spite of the rain overhead and the worst of slush underneath.

And if they had heard only the numbers of Signor Salvi upon the harp they would have felt well repaid for the inconvenience of the weather. A fore taste of the good things to come was given in the opening concerto, one of Salvi's compositions.

Miss Austin also gave a concerto for the violin, one of the difficult numbers of Paganini-Wilhelmj. But she reached her greatest popularity with the Maryville audience in her second appearance, in which she played Schubert's serenade, demanding much expression, and then transposing the order of program, followed it with Fritz Kreisler's arrangement of Bach's Praeludium for the violin. This number was the opposite of the serenade, being a show of technique and mechanical skill.

As a coloratura soprano, Mme. Ransom was somewhat extreme. For those who prefer to imagine the setting of the song for themselves and do not care for the expression-filled presentation of a coloratura, the numbers of Mrs. Ransom were not so well enjoyed. For others, however, they were the most enjoyable numbers of the program.

Double returns were demanded of both Signor Salvi and Miss Austin. The former responded after his Scherzo with Humoresque and then the sextet from Lucia, each of which, being familiar numbers, were specially enjoyed by the audience. Miss Austin's return, in which she played a medley of "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," Swanee River with Humoresque accompaniment, and Annie Laurie were heard with much pleasure.

The closing number was short but pleasing as a combination of the voice, violin and harp. All of the artists showed their versatility by pleasing accompaniments to the numbers of the others.

DRURY'S SCORE SURPRISES

44-28 WAS WORSE DEFEAT THAN FEARED.

Known by Normals That Springfield Always Has Good Teams, But Not That Good.

"Drury 44, Normals 28," said the student in this office last night about 11 o'clock, taking the telegram from Springfield.

"U-u-u-ugh," granted about twenty of the faithful who had stayed up to hear the report. That seems about all that could be said, so everybody went home.

"Boys in excellent physical condition," read the rest of Mr. Hanson's message.

K. C. Journal's Report.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 20.—Drury college tonight defeated the Maryville Normal basket ball team 44 to 28. Captain Wetzel at center and Roberts at guard starred for the Panthers. Their effective work enabled Drury to win. The defeat of Maryville by Drury was a surprise, as the up-state men have been regarded as possible winners of this year's title, while Coach Nee has been forced to rebuild his team with only Captain Wetzel remaining from the 1915 champions. The Springfield normal team will meet Maryville tomorrow night in the first of a two-game series.

TO ADOPT MERGER

PRESBYTERIANS WILL COMBINE CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL.

BEGINNING; FEBRUARY 6

Opening Program of Song and Prayer, Then Sermon, Followed by Bible Study in One Service.

The merger system of the church and Sunday School services will be given a thorough trial in the First Presbyterian church here beginning the first Sunday in February. The session of the church voted in favor of the plan at a meeting Monday night.

The pastor, the Rev. William Moll Case, gives an outline of the plan in the weekly bulletin of the church for next Sunday and announces that further statements of the method will be made soon. The adoption of the new way of combining the morning services is becoming general over the country, he says.

The services Sunday morning will begin at 10:30. A twenty-five minute opening program will be given followed by the sermon. A hymn at the close of the sermon will give all a chance to leave who are not able to remain for the Bible Study.

The study of the Sunday School work will continue for about a half hour after the sermon with closing at noon. It is said that the plan has solved the problem of getting adults into the Sunday School and children at the preaching services. A six-month's trial will probably be given of the method here.

The matter has been under consideration of the members and officers of the church for many weeks and the decision is the result of much deliberation. A meeting to arrange for the details of the plan will be held next Friday evening. It will be a joint meeting of the session and church council.

MARYVILLE MAY SEE WILSON SOON

PRESIDENT WILL SPEAK AT ST. JOSEPH AND DES MOINES SOON.

CITIZENS ASK ROUTE OVER CRESTON LINE

Plan of Itinerary Provides for Short Speeches From Train at Towns Upon Defense.

Maryville may have the opportunity of seeing and hearing President Wilson within the next two weeks. He will speak at St. Joseph early in February and in Des Moines the following day. Mrs. Wilson will accompany him.

The itinerary as now planned provides for short speeches from the rear of the special train at the smaller cities. An effort will be made by the citizens of Maryville to have the president go to the capital of Iowa over the Burlington to Creston.

The Chicago Great Western is the most direct route from St. Joseph to Des Moines, but it contains no towns of such size as to make the speeches of Mr. Wilson most effective. Savannah, Maryville, Bedford, Lenox and Creston could all be touched over the Creston branch of the Burlington.

Route of President's Trip.

Washington, Jan. 21.—President Wilson plans to speak in Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Des Moines, and Davenport on the first trip he will take to lay his national defense program before the country. He expects to leave Washington January 28 and remain away one week.

An itinerary for the tour practically was completed at the White House tonight. It was drafted with the view of including as many cities as possible in six days, but many of the points the president hoped to visit had to be stricken off the list.

In addition to the cities selected for formal addresses, the president probably will deliver a number of short speeches from the train.

Mrs. Wilson is expected to accompany her husband on the trip, and Secretary Tumulty also will be in the party. While the president is away he will be kept in close touch with the European and Mexican questions by Secretary Lansing.

OUR CULTURAL PROGRESS.

Progress of a quieter kind continues its way so gradually sometimes that it is necessary to stop short and call our own attention to what we have done. Take the cultural advantages which are being offered in Maryville this winter, greater than have ever been attempted before, as an instance.

First, the Maryville Lyceum association had the vision and the "nerve" to believe that Maryville and Nodaway county would appreciate hearing a prima donna of the grade of Alice Nielsen. They pledged themselves personally to a $600 guarantee, and a crowded house was the result.

Their success gave the women of the Twentieth Century club confidence to sign a contract for $300 to bring Miss Helen Keller and her teacher, Mrs. Macy, to this city next Thursday, January 27. The wonderful lecturer has seldom spoken in cities so small as Maryville, and this lecture will mark a new step forward in Maryville's educational experience.

Finally, it fell to the lot of Prof. P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory of Music to have a really big vision, particularly from a financial standpoint, and to attempt to bring the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra to Maryville at an expense of $1,200.

And with what remarkable ease was the guarantee assured. Twenty-seven men consented to sign their names and the list was secured in less than half a day. But who knows how much effect the success and confidence of the lyceum and the Twentieth Century club had to do with the latest triumph.

You see, the thing grows. One really worth-while attraction leads on to others. And Maryville, its community and Nodaway county have every reason to congratulate themselves upon the achievements of the winter of 1915-16 in the field of the highest and best type of entertainment and culture.

The Macon Times-Democrat began the publication of a daily edition Monday afternoon. And if the issues are equal to the promise of the opening days, it will be a most creditable addition.

25 CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance and incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few week's use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

TOOK CHRISTMAS SUBJECT

DR. H. A. SMOOT PREACHED ON BIRTH OF SAVIOR WEDNESDAY.

The Divine Child as the One Sent to Save Sinful World is Evangelist's Message.

Dr. H. A. Smoot preached upon a Christmas subject Wednesday at the First Baptist church revival meetings. His text was: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord."

Rev. Smoot said in part:

"These are the words of the angel to the shepherds concerning the birth of our Savior. Christ is the central figure of all history. He was born into this world a savior. We find that at the time of His birth the father and mother had gone to Bethlehem to be enrolled, and we find that the shepherds were out on the hills watching their sheep and the glory of God had frightened them and they were fearful and the angels comforted them with the words of this text.

"I want you to notice, my sinner friends, that this Savior came into the world to save you. I want you to notice how important this event is to the world. We find that all time has been righted from this event. Every document in the world today and through all the nineteen centuries passed has recognized this fact. When the shepherds and wise men came to Him to present their gifts, they found Christ. And so it is today. The thousands that have come for the purpose of finding Christ find Him and have never been disappointed. While you may not have the gold, frankincense and myrrh to give you have more to give, and that is yourself. Christ has invited every lost man and woman to come unto Him. It is your privilege to come and give yourself to Him.

"This, indeed, is the age of mercy. We have both the law and the new testament. The sinner today is more greatly obligated to come to Christ than those who lived way back yonder in the old testament. Four thousand years before the birth of Christ all people that were saved were saved through looking forward through the prophets to the time when He should be sacrificed. Today we have the same prophets and the history of Christian and new testament also. They were saved by looking forward. We are saved by looking backward.

"God's ideal is perfection. We will never discharge our duty without having God's ideal constantly before us. He has perfected the sun, the moon and the stars and all things about us. The only reason He hasn't perfected us is because we will not let Him. God's ideal is perfection. We should never stop pressing upward and onward toward this ideal.

"Concerning our birth, every one of us were restricted. Not so concerning second birth. We can be consulted about our second birth. It is optional with every one of us. We have much to say and much to do. We see His goodness in the incarnation and we see His love in redemption. God has revealed himself to us in so many wonderful ways. In nature God is against every one of us. In law, God is against us. In incarnation and redemption God is with us. If we want to be with God and have God with us we must not neglect redemption.

"Christ not only saves us from hell and the consequences of sin, but He saves us from the condemnation of sin. By His obedience and death the law was magnified and made honored. 'For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.' Jesus saves us from the practice of sin. An individual that is regenerated is going to live differently afterwards. Even so every good tree bringeth forth fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit." Through Christ the consequences of sin are not allowed to do us any real injury. Christ has taken the sting out of death and the victory out of the grave. Not only is He our Savior, but He is our redeemer. He is the great deliverer. There is only one thing that has kept Him from delivering you and that is you. You have not yet come to Him.

"It may be too late for you to accept Him, but it will never be too late for Him to save you when you come. 'Let us remember, then, that Jesus Christ loved the world, and this love prompted Him to come and lay down His life that He might save the world.'

REPENTANCE SERMON AGAIN

Baptist Crowd Lessened by Lyceum Number—"Immortality of Influence."

The crowds at the First Baptist church revival were somewhat lessened by the lyceum number, but between one hundred and fifty and two hundred people heard Dr. Smoot continue his sermons on repentance. His subject for tonight is "The Immortality of Influence." The text last night was: "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."

Rev. Smoot said in part:

"We find that this doctrine of repentance is one of the fundamental doctrines of the book, one of the fundamental doctrines of the plan of salvation. The sinner can never be saved without repentance, and then the sinner needs to repent every day of his life. Why? Because we sin in thought, word and deed, and then there are the sins of commission and omission. Now repentance always comes in connection with sin. Adam and Eve could not have repented before they sinned. The angels in heaven can't repent. It is only a sinner that can repent.

"It is a good thing for Christian men and women to take time to think on their lives and many times it will bring them to repentance. 'Or de spisset thou the riches of His goodness for forbearance and long suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?' This is just what we do when we refuse to repent. Let us reflect on the life of Peter relative to repentance. When he reflected upon the excellence of the Lord, he repented of his sins. When we reflect upon the goodness of God, it will lead us to repentance.

When Peter thought how the Lord had placed him in a position of trust, how He had called him out from the rest of the disciples, how he was one of the chosen three, he repented. Some of us have been called to do a special work that created responsibility and obligation. When we reflect upon these things it leads us to Him in repentance. God had forewarned Peter of his sin, and when he thought about it, he came back to God in repentance. Have we been guilty? Have we made good our promises to God? It is our privilege to think back upon our lives as they were before we were converted, and to think of our resistance of light, conscience, holy spirit, friends and many invitations that were given us. Think of our backsliding, our heart waywardness, of the souls of others we could have led to the light. Think of God's great love manifested and manifold in so many ways to us. We can think of these things and God will warm our hearts and bring us to repentance.

"We should be bold in the service of our Master and courageous in God. How can we serve Him? We must keep close to Him, and the way to keep close to Him is through repentance. God says to the sinner: 'Repent ye therefore and be converted that your sins may be blotted out.' Many think that to repent is to be sorry. That isn't true. True repentance is being sorry enough never to do it again. Whenever a fellow makes restitution, whenever a fellow is sorry enough to quit his meanness and lead a different life, that is truly repentance. Oh, conscience would lead us to do differently.

Let us not rebel against our better natures. Many people profess repentance and fail to bring forth the fruit of it. There are many things that can't be undone, but repentance leads us to make restitution in the best way possible. Our change of mind must be complete and we must know God's will and do it."

"Tell Me the Secret"

"How do you make such delicious muffins? Mine are always so dry. And if I make the batter thin they fall. How do you do it?"

"I make them about as you do, only I use K C Baking Powder. Mine always turn out well, so it must be the baking powder."

It is the baking powder. To make muffins, cakes and pastry rich and moist, yet light and feathery, a modern double acting baking powder must be used—one that will give off leavening gas in the oven as well as in the mixing bowl.

K C BAKING POWDER

is really a blend of two baking powders, one of which starts to raise as soon as moisture is added. The other is inactive until heat is applied. This sustains the raise until your muffins, biscuits or cake is done.

K C Baking Powder costs less than the old fashioned quick acting kinds, yet you need use no more and it is superior to them in every way.

Profit in Hogs Told in Farm and Home Article About Henry Fesenmeyer of Iowa.

A mighty interesting story of the way in which Henry Fesenmeyer has become a leading swine breeder is told in the January Farm and Home by Fred L. Petty. It is the story of a struggle from a $10 a week job as harness maker to a prosperous harness shop of his own and from that, by slow degrees and in the face of many discouragements and losses, to his present standing as one of Iowa's most successful hog breeders.

The start in pure-bred hogs was made with one registered sow kept in a pen on a town lot. From this the establishment grew to a five-acre lot on the edge of town, then to a little farm where cholera destroyed his herd, back to the five-acre field again, then permanent success and big profits. Now he has the 30 acres of fine rolling land, a big fine house, new barns and hog houses and further improvements are projected for the near future.

"I always took an interest in stock, especially hogs, and liked to handle them," said Mr. Fesenmeyer. "One day I was coming home from the shop at noon and saw several men grouped around a pen in a neighboring livery barn. I went in and found them looking at a big fine Poland-China sow. I knew nothing at that time of the pure bred business, but the sow looked good to me. She was of big type and weighed 700 pounds. I paid $100 for her. This looked like a lot of money to my wife and me, and we talked it over pretty carefully before buying. It was a good buy, however. From that sow I raised 18 pigs the first year that sold at $40 a head. I kept her until she died, and sold $3,500 worth of her own pigs. These went out to local farmers at $25 to $30 a head."

Later Mr. Fesenmeyer bought another sow for $151, and she, too, did well by him. Later he paid $345 for the noted A Wonder, whose blood has done so much for improving the big type of Poland-Chinas.

Wells-Jackson Nuptials.

Ceremony Performed Yesterday.

The beautiful home of Mrs. W. R. Wells, on South Main street, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when her daughter, Marie Wells, became the bride of Roy E. Jackson of Parnell.

The spacious rooms were elaborately decorated with roses, ferns and southern smilax, a veritable bower of flowers, and were lighted with tapers during the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony a twenty minutes musicale was given by Mrs. C. Edwin Wells at the piano, and Mr. C. Burman Wells, who sang several solos. Just before the bridal party appeared Mr. Wells sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

The ribbon bearers were Eugene and Douglas Wells, who preceded the party down the stairs. They wore handsome suits of black velvet.

Miss Ruth Matter, Miss Alleen Burris of St. Joseph and Miss Pearl Jackson of Parnell were the bride's attendants, and wore handsome satin gowns of pink, yellow and peach. They had large bows of tulle tied at the shoulders and caught at the wrists, and carried very handsome bouquets of roses.

Miss Kathleen Wells, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and her gown was a very exquisite creation of turquoise blue tulle over white satin, and carried a bouquet of roses.

The bride's gown was white tulle over silver cloth, with slippers of silver satin. She wore a full veil, carried with orange blossoms, and carried a huge bouquet of bride's roses.

Little Margaret Marie Wells, a niece of the bride, was the ring bearer, and was daintily dressed in white.

The party descended the stairs and met Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, officiating clergyman, in the hall, where a bank of palms, flowers and smilax were arranged. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. A. J. Wells. The ring ceremony was read. The wedding ring which was used was the wedding ring of the bride's grandmother.

Immediately after the ceremony the Rev. Cox introduced Mr. and Mrs. A. Burman Wells, who were married yesterday morning, and received congratulations with Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

A reception was then held for the newly weds. During the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served, carried out in the colors of green and white, the bride's sorority colors. The ices were frozen in the form of white doves on green pedestals.

Mrs. A. J. Wells, Mrs. C. L. Wells and Miss Mabel Wells presided at the table, and Mrs. Harry Wells at the punch bowl. They were assisted in serving by Miss Myrl Burris of St. Joseph, Miss Goldie Roelofson, Miss Mary Gwinn of Bedison, and Miss Nina Bent.

The bride cut the cake and Miss Mary Gwinn received the ring. As Mrs. Jackson went upstairs to prepare for her wedding trip, she threw her bouquet, it being caught by Miss Myrl Burris and Miss Mary Gwinn and was divided by them.

Mr. Jackson is the son of Judge W. T. Jackson of Parnell, was reared in this county and is a promising young farmer and stockman of sterling worth.

Mrs. Jackson is the eldest daughter of Mrs. W. R. Wells, and one of Maryville's capable and charming young ladies. She was graduated from the Maryville high school in 1910, graduated in music at the Maryville Conservatory of Music in 1911, and spent two years at the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. She is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority of the university.

FEED SHEEP ON OLD WHEAT

W. D. Hoshor of Arkoe Tells of Sale—W. N. Wray Also Interviewed by Journal.

"I bought over 700 head of feeding lambs on this market about 3 months ago when they were selling at $8.20," said W. D. Hoshor, an extensive farmer of Arkoe. "Many of the farmers in my neighborhood said I never could come out clear on them but I had a wheat field that was damaged so badly that it would be a total waste if it was not fed and sheep were the only animals that looked good to me. I turned them on the wheat and afterwards into a corn field. They made splendid gains for the ration fed them and I am well pleased with their sale."

Will N. Wray, one of the largest shippers to this market from Gullford, reports that about the usual number of hogs are being fed in his vicinity this season, but that the supply of cattle is very small. Most of the cattle were grassed through, and when the supply of grass gave out they were shipped to market. Many cattle were shipped in after the snow, because they could not get the grass and feeders would not feed the cattle grain.—St. Joseph Stock Yards Journal.

Obituary.

Mrs. Docia Wheaton Brogan was born near Knoxville, Tenn., November 13, 1830, and departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. K. Heflin, in Lawrence, Kan., at 5:30 o'clock, the morning of January 15, 1916. She was 85 years, 2 months and 2 days old.

Without a struggle or sign of pain she beautifully and peacefully fell asleep, only to awaken on the bright shore beyond the river of life.

She was married to Joel Brogan in Knoxville, Tenn., April 12, 1855. They came to Missouri the same year and settled on a farm eight miles northwest of Maryville.

Her husband preceded her to the great beyond July 1, 1892.

To this union were born seven children, all of whom are living. She is also survived by eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Brogan was converted and united with the Methodist church when only 14 years old and continued faithful. She proved to be a mother of strength and beautiful character—indeed, a mother in Israel. She was sympathetic and thoughtful. Hers was a life of love and devotion, not only to her children but she was a kind hearted, appreciative friend to all, and to know her was to be convinced that she had companionship from above.

The body was interred beside that of her husband in the Wilcox cemetery.

Rev. R. C. Holliday Returns.

The Rev. R. C. Holliday, pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist church, returned today from the Pleasant Grove neighborhood, where he has been assisting the Rev. G. T. Halston in holding a revival meeting.

W. E. Goforth is confined to his home with an attack of the grip.

B. J. SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Proceeds of Box Supper Will Be Used to Buy Supplies Recommended by Inspector.

A very entertaining program and a box supper will be given at the public school building in Burlington Junction next Wednesday night. The receipts from the sale of the boxes will be used to purchase some additional equipment at the school, for which there are no funds.

During his visit recently the state high school inspector asked for some supplies, the purchase of which exceeded the school fund by fifty dollars. To accomplish the purchase of this equipment the patrons, teachers and pupils have arranged this program and box supper to defray those expenses, and urge all who are interested in our school to attend.

One of the interesting features of the program will be impersonations of business men by several of the high school boys. Others on the program are: Solos by Garnett Praisewear, Katherine Flemming, Edith Engle and Huldah Barber.

A piano duet will be given by Helen Good and Ludena McKnight, after which the sale of the boxes will be made by Col. O. F. Wilson, who will be auctioneer.

WIRELESS LINKS TWO OCEANS

Battleship in the Atlantic Talks to Another in Pacific.

Washington.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced that for the first time a wireless message had been successfully transmitted from a naval vessel in the Atlantic to one in the Pacific.

The experiment was successfully tried when the battleship Wyoming, off Cape Henry, Va., exchanged messages with Admiral Cameron McL. Winslow, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, on board the cruiser San Diego in Guaymas harbor, west coast of Mexico. The messages were easily deciphered. By air line Guaymas is approximately 2,000 miles from Cape Henry.

Men Knit Shawls in Jail. Evansville, Ind.—Hand knitted woolen shawls, the "kind that grandmother wore," are being made by men prisoners in the county jail here. Two of the shawls have been completed and are valued at $10 each. Four of the prisoners are working on the shawls, and they have become experts. Exactly 6,405 knots are made in each shawl.

Four cars of cinders were derailed yesterday in the Burlington switch yards as they were being switched from the Wabash Y. They are being unloaded today and when empty it is thought they can be pulled back on the track.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE.

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Bile-ness, Sour Stomach and Constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now. Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druglist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too. 10-8-15

THE CROCHETING HORROR

HABIT SWEEPING COUNTRY IS HARD ON MEN.

Crackers and Soup for Supper and if "Hubby" Loses Hat, Let Him Hunt.

Editor: What can we do to stop this growing wave of intemperance that is sweeping over our land, engulfing our women and girls, making nervous wrecks of them and bidding fair in time to destroy our happy homes?

I refer to the crochet habit. My wife was a good cook—would be still if she could stop crocheting long enough to put her mind on the dinner.

She sits down after breakfast with her ball of cotton and crochet needle and rocks and crochets until almost dinner time, stops long enough to telephone for a loaf of bread. When the bread comes she opens a can of soup or something and we have a lunch.

Time was if she saw me looking for my hat she was on her feet instantly, and flew about until she found it, and brought it to me.

But now when I ask, "Where's my hat?" she answers, "Seven, eight, nine chain three turn—I don't know, I'm sure. Look around and if you can't find it, I'll help you hunt, when I've finished this scallop." I could be half way down town by the time she had finished that scallop.

If I ask what I shall bring home, meaning, of course, in the line of eats, she says, "Get three spoils of D. M. C. No. 60."

She is not the only one. All the neighbors are as bad. Get a lot of women together and all you hear is, dollies, centerpieces and yokes, but the greatest of these is yokes. Yokes for dresses, yokes for corset covers and yokes for nighties. Yards and yards of mile-a-minute for petticoats and pan—excuse me, I should say bloomers.

The dear ladies—"God bless 'em"—have so many plans on foot for reforming mere men, and when they get to vote, for, of course, we are going to give it to them, they will regulate our drinks and our smokes, our goings out and our comings in, and make us altogether better in every way.

Now let us reciprocate, and before it is too late, let us see what we can do to arrest them in this mad crocheting career. They have trimmed every thing from a bedspread to a wash rag with crochet. How do we know that they will not begin on our clothes next?—Tyler County Journal.
